

Connor Sport Court names Christa Bird Field Services Manager

Salt Lake City, June 3, 2008--Christa Bird will be the new Field Services Manager at Connor Sport Court International, headquartered in Salt Lake City.

Christa has been with CSCI since January 2001 and has developed extensive knowledge of the company and its products.

“Christa is well qualified for this newly formed position as she has an exceptional track record as the Warranty Manager and has built a strong relationship with our network,” Said Ron Cerny, president of Connor Sport Court,

In her new position Christa will continue to help the company develop and build a collaborative relationship within CSCI and with its dealer network on various technical and field service related areas.
