FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL PAN-AMERICAN CUP
SELECTS SPORT COURT®
AS SURFACE FOR GAMES JUNE 26-JULY 5, 2009

Miami, Florida (PRWeb), June 23, 2009—Teams from throughout the Americas will converge on Miami June 26 through July 5 to take part in the Women's Volleyball Pan-American Cup, the qualifying event leading up to the 2010 International Volleyball Federation (FIVB) World Grand Prix.

All games will be played on Sport Court® surfaces, “The Official Sport Flooring and Corporate Partner of USA Volleyball”.

“It promises to be very exciting,” said Ron Cerny, President and CEO of Utah-based Connor Sport Court International, manufacturer of the playing surfaces. “Some of the participating teams are 2008 Olympic Gold Medalist Brazil, Silver Medalist USA, as well as Argentina, Puerto Rico, Mexico and Canada.”

The games are played on about 6,500 feet of Sport Court's Response™ modular playing surface at each of two venues—the Bank United Center at the University of Miami and the US Century Bank Arena at Florida International University.

Sport Court Response is a state-of-the-art engineered polymer surface, which has Lateral Forgiveness™ for player safety while at the same time providing the resiliency needed in this fast-moving sport.” Sport Court engineers have constantly developed and improved this court system to make it the indisputable choice for volleyball organizations the world over.
